The Employer shall notify the Employee of this right at the scheduling of the formal meeting.

ARTICLE 8 – GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

8.01 The parties to this Agreement believe that it is important to respond to complaints and grievances as quickly as possible as provided for herein.

8.02 Complaint Stage:

Should any dispute arise between the Employer and an Employee (individual), or between the Employer and the Union (Policy), or between the Employer and a group of Employees (Group) who have identical grievances, as to the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of any of the provisions of this Agreement, the employee or Union shall first discuss the complaint informally with the Manager within fourteen (14) calendar days following the issue giving rise to the complaint or when the Employee ought to have reasonably become aware of the issue giving rise to the complaint.

The Manager or a designate shall then respond within five (5) calendar days of such discussion/meeting. If the dispute is not resolved to the satisfaction of the Employee, group of Employees or Union such dispute shall be submitted as a written grievance within five (5) calendar days of the Manager or designate's response.

Notwithstanding the above, in the case of a discharge the parties agree that a written grievance shall be filed within ten (10) calendar days of the discharge and that the complaint stage will not be required.

8.03 Grievance Stage:

Once a written grievance is initiated, the parties shall have a period, not to exceed forty (40) calendar days, during which to hold meetings as necessary to discuss the issue and attempt to arrive at a resolution. In addition to the OPSEU Union Steward, an OPSEU Staff Representative is entitled to attend such meetings.

The parties agree that an Employee or group of Employees, including the Union Steward, required to attend at the complaint or grievance stage shall do so without any loss of credits, pay or benefits.

8.04 Arbitration Stage:

a) If, after the end of such forty (40) calendar day period, the issue has not been resolved, either party may inform the other party in writing within fourteen (14) calendar days of its intent to forward the matter to arbitration. Following the notification above, the parties shall exchange names of arbitrators. If the parties are unable to agree on an Arbitrator, the appointment of the Arbitrator shall be made by the Minister of Labour for Ontario upon the request of either party.

b) Notwithstanding a) above, either party can notify the other that it does not feel the grievance can be resolved directly between the parties and that it intends to refer the grievance to arbitration in which case such notice to arbitrate will not be considered premature. Notwithstanding the notice to arbitrate, should the other party request a meeting, the first party will agree to attend such meeting to be scheduled as soon as practicable.

8.05 Time limits fixed in the grievance and arbitration procedures may be extended only by written, mutual consent of the parties. Should the Employer not respond within the time(s) fixed, such failure to respond shall be deemed to be a denial of the grievance. Should a grievance not be submitted within the various time limits specified in the Agreement, unless mutually extended, it shall be considered to have been abandoned, subject to the relief jurisdiction of arbitrators under Section 48 (16) of the Labour Relations Act. Extensions under this clause shall not be unreasonably withheld.

- 8.06 Once appointed, the Arbitrator shall have all the powers and shall conduct the proceeding under Section 50 of the Labour Relations Act to mediate/arbitrate the grievance, including the power to impose a settlement in accordance with Article 8.08.
- 8.07 The Arbitrator shall hear and determine the difference or allegation and shall issue a decision and the decision is final and binding upon the parties and upon any employee affected by it.
- 8.08 The Arbitrator shall have authority only to settle disputes under the terms of this Agreement and only to interpret and apply this Agreement. The Arbitrator may take such decision as it may, in the circumstances, deem just and equitable and may vary or set aside any action relating to the grievance in question.
- 8.09 The Arbitrator shall have no power to alter, add to, subtract from, modify or amend this Agreement in order to give any decision inconsistent with it.
- 8.10 Any grievance which has been disposed of hereunder or settled between the Employer, the Union or the Employee(s) concerned shall be final and binding upon the Employer, Union and Employee(s) involved.
- 8.11 It is understood and agreed that the parties may choose to utilize a Board of Arbitration instead of a Sole Arbitrator. In such cases each party will be responsible for their own nominees' expenses.

Where the parties agree, they will exchange names of nominees within ten (10) calendar days. The two appointees so selected shall within ten (10) calendar days of the appointment of the second of them, appoint a third person who shall be the Chairperson. If the parties' nominees are unable to agree on a Chairperson, or one of the parties fails to appoint a nominee, the appointment of the chair shall be made by the Minister of Labour for Ontario upon the request of either party.

All references in the above Article to a Sole Arbitrator shall be taken to include a Board of Arbitration, if necessary.

8.12 Fees

Each of the parties to this Agreement will pay the fees and disbursements of its nominee to the Arbitration Board, and will share equally the fees and disbursements of the Chair, or sole arbitrator, as applicable.

8.13 Mediation

(a) Mutual Agreement

No matter shall be referred to Mediation unless it has been carried through the grievance procedure first.

It is understood that the Parties may agree in writing, to submit a grievance to Mediation once it has been filed to Arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Collective Agreement.

(b) Selection of the Mediator

The Mediator shall be selected through the mutual agreement of both parties. If the parties can't agree to a mediator within the (10) days of the referral, the matter should then proceed to Arbitration as outlined in the Collective Agreement.

- (c) If no settlement is reached through the Mediation process, the matter will proceed to Arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Collective Agreement. In the event that a grievance which has been mediated subsequently proceeds to arbitration, no person serving as the Mediator may serve as an Arbitrator.

In order to encourage open discussion and negotiation during mediation, oral and written settlement discussions and proposals are privileged and cannot be disclosed or relied upon in any further proceedings.

- (d) The Union and Employer will share the cost of Mediation, if any.

ARTICLE 9 - DISCIPLINE, DISCHARGE, OR SUSPENSION

- 9.01 If any letter of reprimand, suspension or other sanction is to be placed on the Employee's record, the Employer shall give written particulars of such letter to the Employee with a copy sent to the Union.

9.02 Disciplinary Action

Disciplinary action that results in the suspension or discharge of an Employee shall be confirmed to the Employee concerned by the giving of written particulars of such action, with a copy thereof being sent to the Union.

Except in emergency circumstances, an Employee who is to be released, terminated, disciplined, suspended or discharged has the right to have a Union representative present at any meeting convened by the Employer for that purpose. The Employer shall notify the Employee of this right before the start of the formal meeting in cases of release, termination, suspension or discharge. The Union shall be notified in advance, with consideration of as much notice as possible, of any formal meeting with an Employee under this clause.

ARTICLE 10 - PERSONNEL FILE

10.01 Access to Personnel File

Each Employee shall have reasonable access to their personnel file for the purpose of reviewing its contents, in the presence of a representative from Human Resources. An Employee has the right to request copies of any evaluations, letters of counseling or formal disciplinary notations in this file. With the written consent of the Employee, a Union representative or Union Steward shall also have the right of access to an Employee's personnel file.

It is understood that temporary transfers to a position outside the bargaining unit shall be no longer than eighteen (18) months. Such period of time may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties concerned. When this is necessary the information on the posting in Article 12.01 (iv) above shall be amended to reflect that the office location shall be the office location of the successful candidate or such other location as may be mutually agreed by the Employee and the Employer.

12.02 Selection

- a) Bargaining unit Employees who apply for a vacancy and meet the minimum required qualifications shall be given prior consideration before any external applicants.
- b) Where qualifications, skills and abilities are relatively equal, seniority shall govern the selection. When applying seniority, the Employer will use the seniority of an Employee as of the date of the close of the job posting period.

- d) An unsuccessful applicant may request a meeting with the Employer in which the Employer shall advise the Employee of the steps they may take to improve their candidacy in future applications.

The trial period will not delay the Employee's entitlement to any pay increase. Should the Employee find the work suitable and should the Employer find the Employee suitable and capable of performing the work of the position after four (4) months, the Employer shall confirm the Employee in the position.

- b) However, should the Employee find the work unsuitable and/or the Employer find the Employee unsuitable or incapable of performing the work of the position, the Employee shall be returned to their former position and wage rate without loss of seniority. Any other Employee promoted or transferred because of the re-arrangement of positions shall also be returned to their former position and salary or wage rate without loss of seniority.

"Suitable and "unsuitable" above refers to the performance of work. The Employer will consider on an individual basis any request by an Employee to return to their former position based on other circumstances.

12.04 Grid Placement upon Selection

- a) An Employee who moves to a higher rated position within the bargaining unit will be placed in the range of the higher rated position so that they shall receive no less an increase in wage rate than the equivalent of one step in the wage rate of their previous position (provided that they do not exceed the wage rate of the position to which they have been promoted). ARTICLE 14 – JOB SECURITY

14.01 Definition of Short-Term Lay-Off

A short-term lay-off is one that is expected to be thirteen (13) weeks or less.

14.02 Definition of Long-Term Lay-Off

A long-term lay-off is one that is expected to be more than thirteen (13) weeks.

14.03 General Principles Affecting All Lay-Offs

The Employer and the Union agree to work jointly to minimize any adverse effect of a long term lay-off on Employees. Upon request, and without unnecessary delay, the Union-Management committee under Article 7.04 will be convened for the purpose of discussing the lay-off and displacement process. The Union will be afforded opportunities to propose voluntary measures which the Employees are willing to undertake to prevent a lay-off.

It is recognized that the Employer shall at all times be entitled to retain a work force having the ability to do the work assigned to it; accordingly, in lay-offs and recalls to work following a lay-off, the following shall apply:

- a) The Employer shall have regard to the qualifications and skills required by it in the performance of available work;
- b) The Employer shall have regard to the seniority of Employees in the bargaining unit; and if, as between two (2) or more Employees, the factors in (a) above, are relatively equal, then (b) shall govern and the Employee with the least seniority shall be laid off or, in the event of a recall, the Employee with the most seniority shall be recalled.
- c) For the purposes of lay-offs, probationary Employees shall be laid off first and called back to work last.

- c) No new Employee(s) shall be hired until all those laid off have been given an opportunity to return to work and failed to do so, or are not qualified or have been found unable to perform the work available.
- e) The Employer shall notify the Union as soon as possible in the event of the need to proceed with a lay-off.

14.04 Short-Term Lay-Off Process

For lay-offs of less than thirteen (13) weeks, the Employer shall provide to the Union and the Employee a minimum of ten (10) working days written notice. The Employer may provide the equivalent of pay in lieu of notice to the Employee. If the Employee has not had the opportunity to work the days as provided for in this Article, they shall be paid for the days upon which work was not made available. In the event of a short-term lay-off, Employees shall be laid-off in reverse order of seniority by position within an affected area. Depending on the circumstances giving rise to the lay-off Employees may be laid-off in reverse order of seniority by position Champlain wide. Position shall be defined as the position title as set out in Schedule "A" of the Agreement. The least senior Employee in the affected position shall be the first laid-off. In the event of a recall the most senior person remaining on lay-off shall be the first recalled, provided they possess the necessary skills, qualifications, abilities and competence, to perform the work available without training, other than a familiarization period of no longer than five (5) days worked. An Employee subject to lay-off shall be permitted to bump:

- a) any Employee in the same position who has lesser seniority and who is the least senior Employee in the position the laid-off Employee is seeking to bump into if the person to be bumped is outside of their affected area, or,
- b) a lower or an identical-paying position who has lesser seniority and who is the least senior Employee in the position the laid-off Employee is seeking to bump into. The bumping Employee must already possess the necessary skills, qualifications, abilities and competence to perform the work available without training other than a familiarization period of no longer than five (5) days worked.

On the third day of the notice period, all Employees must specify the position they wish to bump into, and these, plus all resulting bumps must be completed by the end of the fifth working day.

14.05 Long-Term Lay-Off Process

In the event of a pending lay-off of a permanent or long term nature, the Employer shall provide to the Union and the Employee in writing with no less than three months' notice. If the Employee has not had the opportunity to work the days as provided for in this Article, they shall be paid for the days upon which work was not made available.

An Employee in receipt of notice of long-term lay-off may:

- a) The incumbent in any position to be eliminated pursuant to Article 14.05 will be given prior consideration for all vacancies for which the Employee is qualified and has the skills and abilities to perform the duties of the position, subject to a familiarization period. Provided the vacant position is within 60 kilometers of the location of the eliminated position, the Employee will be placed into such vacant position without competition. If the vacant position is beyond the 60 kilometers, the Employee shall have the choice of being placed into the vacant position without competition. No new Employees will be hired into vacancies in the bargaining unit until redundant or surplus bargaining unit Employees have been considered under this clause.
- b) If the Employee is not successful in obtaining a position under (a), and if a vacancy exists within 60 kilometers of the location of the eliminated position for which the Employee can be retrained by the Employer within a period of four (4) months, the Employer shall retrain the Employee for the vacant position. This option shall be subject to the agreement of the Employee. The Employer and the Union may agree to extend the retraining period.
- c) An Employee not successful in obtaining a position in accordance with (a) and (b), may be reassigned by the Employer to another vacant position within 60 kilometers of the location of the eliminated position including one which may be a lower paying job. If the reassignment is to a lower paying position the Employee may opt not to accept the reassignment but instead may utilize the provisions of clauses (e) or (f), as applicable.
- d) Upon appointment to a position as described in (a), (b) or (c) above, the Employee will be placed into the salary range of the newly entered position. If the salary of the Employee exceeds the maximum range of the newly entered position, the Employee will be placed at the maximum of the salary range for that position.

- e) Opt to bump any Employee in the same or a lower or an identical-paying position who has lesser seniority and who is the least senior Employee in the position the laid-off Employee is seeking to bump into.

The bumping Employee must already possess the necessary skills, qualifications, abilities and competence to perform the work available without training other than a familiarization period of no longer than ten (10) days worked.

On the fifth (5) day of the notice period, all Employees must specify the position they wish to bump into. Any other Employees so bumped must exercise their bumping rights within three (3) days of their being bumped, and so on.

- f) Should the Employee not exercise their rights under (e) above, then the Employee shall be entitled to resign/retire and receive a separation allowance as provided in this Agreement.
- g) An Employee who has the ability to perform the work but who does not meet the bilingual requirement of the position into which bumping would occur shall not be denied the opportunity to bump into the position provided it does not unreasonably interfere, as determined by the Employer, with operational requirements.

14.06 Vacancies

A displaced or laid-off Employee shall have the privilege of returning to the same position as the one held prior to the lay-off or displacement should it become vacant within six (6) months of being displaced or laid off provided the Employee has all of the necessary qualifications and ability to do the work required without training.

14.07 Recall

In accordance with Article 11 Seniority, Employees on lay-off may remain on the recall list for eighteen (18) months.

The Employer shall notify the Employee of recall opportunity by registered mail addressed to the last address on record with the Employer. The notification shall state the job to which the position and assignment to which the Employee is eligible to be recalled and the date and time at which the Employee shall report to work. Within ten (10) days from the date the notice was sent by registered mail, the Employee shall inform the Employer of their intention to return to work. An Employee who fails to notify the Employer within ten (10) days of their intention to return to work or fails to return to work on the date stated in the notification shall be terminated. The Employee is solely responsible for their proper address being on record with the Employer.

14.08 Temporary Vacancies

An Employee on lay-off shall be given preference for temporary vacancies which are expected to exceed thirty (30) calendar days if the Employee is qualified to perform the available work without training. An Employee who has been recalled to a temporary vacancy shall not be required to accept such recall and may instead remain on lay-off.

Acceptance of a temporary vacancy shall not extend the period for which an employee remains on the recall list date under Article 14.07.

14.09 Overtime During Lay-Off

The Employer agrees that during periods of lay-off it will not either encourage or require excessive overtime to be worked by Employees in the bargaining unit. The purpose of the undertaking contained within this clause is to ensure that Employees have some protection and that Employees are not asked to work overtime in order to avoid calling back to work Employees who are on lay-off. It is understood that overtime may be required but should the overtime hours accumulate to an extent that they are close to being the equivalent of an additional full-time Employee the Employer will make all reasonable efforts to call back to work an Employee on lay-off.

14.10 Severance

Should the Employee be entitled to a separation allowance in accordance with this Article, the payments will be as follows:

- i) More than three (3) months but less than one (1) year of service - one (1) week;

14.11 Early Retirement

Before issuing notice of long term lay-off pursuant to Article 14 the Employer will make offers of early retirement allowances in accordance with the following conditions:

- (i) The Employer will make offers in order of seniority in the location and in the classifications where lay-offs would otherwise occur. The Employer will offer the same number of early retirements as the number of lay-offs it would otherwise make.
- (ii) The Employer will make offers to Employees eligible for early retirement under the pension plan (including regular part-time, if applicable, whether or not they participate in the Healthcare of Ontario Pension Plan (HOOPP)).
- (iii) The number of early retirements the Employer approves will not exceed the number of Employees in that classification who would otherwise be laid off.

An Employee who elects an early retirement option shall receive, following completion of the last day of work, a retirement allowance of two (2) weeks' salary for each year of service, to a maximum ceiling of fifty-two (52) weeks' salary.

14.12 Merger or Amalgamation of Employer

The Employer agrees that in the event of a full or partial merger or amalgamation with any other Employer or entity, that it will make every effort to ensure that Employees in the bargaining unit are offered positions with the new Employer(s) on the basis of seniority and with terms and conditions of employment that replicate the terms and conditions of the collective agreement.

ARTICLE 15 - TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE

- 15.01 The Employer undertakes to notify the Union in advance, so far as practicable of any technological changes which the Employer has decided to introduce which will significantly change the status of Employees within the bargaining unit.
- 15.02 The Employer agrees to discuss with the Union the effect of such technological changes on the employment status of Employees and to consider practical ways and means of minimizing the adverse effect, if any, upon Employees concerned.
- 15.03 Where new or greater skills are required that are not possessed by affected Employees under the present methods of operation, such Employees shall be given a period of training during which they may perfect or acquire the skills necessitated by the new method of operation. There shall be no reduction in wage or salary rates during the training period of any such Employee. Training shall be given during the hours of work whenever possible and may extend for up to four (4) months. The Employer and the Union may agree to extend the retraining period.
- 15.04 Employees with one or more years of continuous service who are unable to successfully complete the training period are subject to lay-off under conditions referred to above, will be given notice of the impending change in employment status at the earliest reasonable time in keeping with the notification to the Union as above set forth and the requirements of the applicable law.

Re: Workload Concerns and Remedy Process

The Parties agree, on a trial basis, during the life of this agreement, to participate in a joint process as set out below. It is agreed by the parties that this matter is not grievable, however, it does not replace the employees'/Union's right to file a complaint under the OHSA and/or respective regulatory bodies should they choose.

Process

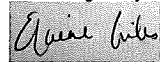

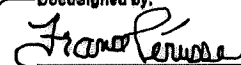

Concerns related to workload issues which have a direct impact on patient care and safety should be discussed with the employee(s) Manager/Supervisor. The employee(s) and the Manager/Supervisor agree to discuss and work towards a mutual resolution.

The local parties will agree to develop a template and the system to be used where employees can document their workload concern and final outcome can be documented.

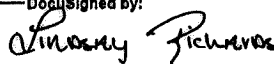

If the matter remains unresolved, it will be referred to the next LHIN Employer/Employee Relations committee as a formal agenda item. Both parties will agree to be proactive in finding solutions to resolve the issues.
